17TH YEAR - NO. 14

WILMINGTON, MASS., THURSDAY, APRIL 13, 1972

FIFTEEN CENTS

Beat the State this Year

WILMINGTON CLEAN-UP STARTS APRIL 20

Wilmington's Clean Up Week, this year, is to co-incide with that of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the Federal Government.

Wilmington's Clean Up starts two days earlier than that of the Commonwealth, on April 20th instead of April 22nd. This is by decision of the Board of Selectmen and Town Manager. Sterling Morris wants to get a two-day "jump" and then get the job over with, because there is so much highway work to be done.

The Annual Chamber of Commerce Clean Up will probably be on April 22nd. President Bernard Brady will be making an announcement shortly, on the date. He expects to call a meeting of participating organizations for next Thursday in the Public Library.

The idea, Mr. Brady has stated, is to get everything accomplished before the First of May.

Participating organizations should be on the alert for the meeting which is to be called. News of the meeting will appear in the next edition of the Town Crier.

Diane Fielding to Electric Light Customers

It is time to Substantiate your Statements

Diane Fielding, of 7 Hopkins Street, who has been leading a fight on electric kilowatt usage charges has issued a public statement, saying that the citizens who have been complaining to her should be prepared to substantiate their statements - or she will wash her hands of the matter.

At least four hundred persons have called Mrs. Fielding, she says, and of these sixty five have taken the time to write and substantiate their statements.

Those who have called, and probably have legitimate gripes will have to take part in the campaign, Mrs. Fielding says - or there will be no campaign.

"I do not intend to lead a bunch of phantoms" was the way she said it, to the Town Crier.

Her statement to the Town Crier yesterday afternoon:

I have worked very hard to get this electrical kilowatt charges situation cleared up. Things seem to be getting worse, instead of better.

The customers bills are getting bigger - steadily. From what the customers tell me, their use of appliances has not been increased. It is the charge for the kilowatts, not the extra charges, of which I am speaking.

Many customers have called me, and taken my time - hours of it. I want to be able to help them, but I cannot, without substantial evidence. I have forms made out, to assist in making complaints, but the resident of Wilmington who feel they are being imposed upon must fill out the forms, and sign them. If this is not done there can be no action on my part.

The Boston Globe Spotlight Team is interested - if they can get the copies of the signed complaints. Without copies - they are not interested. There are other investigatory organizations which may want copies, too.

It is essential to get this cleared up, and promptly. No progress is being made, nor does there seem to be any hopeful sign of progress in the near future.

It has been suggested that if the over-charged parties were to band together, and contribute $25 apiece to a fund there could be a court hearing. The money, of course, would have to be used to cover the costs of the court hearing and of electrical engineering charges. I wonder if some of the persons who have been complaining of the over-charges would be interested?

For all of this I need the help of those who have been talking with me on the telephone. Please - no more telephone calls. Come to my home, fill out the forms, and sign them. Then we might be able to do something.

Sincerely,
Diane Fielding
7 Hopkins Street

Refreshments will be provided including tea, coffee and fruit punch for breaks.

To Fill Brad's Shoes?

PAUL CRONIN: Of Andover and John Gleason of Tewksbury. Both served on Brad Morse's team.

Paul W. Cronin of Andover announced his candidacy for Congress, Monday morning, to fill the seat to be vacated by Congressman F. Bradford Morse, the next Undersecretary General of the United Nations.

Cronin, who is 34, has had an extensive background in public service, and served as Chief Assistant to Congressman Morse both in Washington and in Massachusetts, for 4 years. He has been a Selectman of Andover, and served two terms in the Massachusetts Legislature as a Representative. He and Rep. Fred F. Cain were responsible for the bettering of Ballardvale Road and Andover Roads, for the new Gillette plant in Andover.

Operation I.D. Use Spurts

Those little kits that can be borrowed from the Police or from Bedell Brothers, and which will mark property which is liable to be stolen by thieves - their use spurted, in Wilmington, last week. It was probably as a result of the story in the Town Crier last week after the robberies of the week before.

Inspector John Harvey, in fact, is issuing a plea: Bring Them Back!

The demand is up, and some people are keeping them too long. The kits should be returned in two or three days. They stay out for five or six. That, says Harvey, isn't fair.

The Wilmington Police Department now has fifteen sets of the Operation I.D. Kits, which, it seems, is not quite enough.

TOWN OF WILMINGTON OFFICE OF THE TOWN CLERK NOTICE

The Town Clerk is asking voters to help count ballots on the evening of April 25th from 8:00 P.M. in the High School Gymnasium to 7:00 A.M. and may need relief help from then until the count is finished. You must have a (D) Democrat or an (R) Republican in front of your name on the voting list. You will work in teams of two (2) one of each party being a team. You will be paid @ $2.50 per hour. Anyone over seventy years of age is not eligible.

Please call the Town Clerk's Office at 658-3311 from 8:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M. and your name will be placed on the list to be called as needed.

Esther L. Russell, Town Clerk
Wilmington, Massachusetts

NO PINE NEEDLES, NO LEAVES

A year ago at this time, because of the ban on open air burning, town trucks were taking pine needles and leaves to the Town Dump.

"No More" says the Town Manager. The trucks, it seems are needed for other purposes. No one can propose what one should do with pine needles, except possible to use as stuffing for pillows.

It will be a problem at some homes.

Bernard Brady Chamber of Commerce President

Bernard Brady, 3 Roberts Road, has been elected President of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Brady is Director of Security Safety, at Sweetheart Plastics, and has held other posts with that company. He has been on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce for several terms.

He is married to the former Helen Reynolds of Woburn Street. Mr. Brady is on the Board of Industrial Consultants, for Wentworth Institute in Boston.

Wilmington Pistol Team Shines

The Pistol Team from the Wilmington Police Department finished in fourth place from the top, in recent area pistol matches.

The matches were held during the past winter. The team is to celebrate its good showing at a pistol team dinner, to be held this weekend.

Shooting for Wilmington was Inspector John Harvey, Patrolmen Arthur Lynch Jr., Bernard Wallen, Robert LaRivee, Richard Brown, James Rooney and William Sullivan, and Special Officers John Melvin, Joseph Calnan and Al Venuti.

Some of the other teams in the events, from nearby towns were: Tewksbury (next to last), Burlington (third from bottom), and Billerica (fourth from bottom).

CAT FOOD IS FOOD

A Cat Food plant, in North Woburn, just over the line from Wilmington on Woburn Street, is well known to Wilmington people.

Two of the youthful employees at that plant are said to have quit, during the past week, while others borrowed money from dad and had their heads shorn of long locks.

The reason - an edict from the front office. Food handlers are supposed to have short hair - or wear hair nets according to law. Cat food, apparently, is food.

Ready to step into the shoes of Walter Pierce

MISS DEBBIE ALLEN: Of Ridge Road is one person who is not to be surprised that the Superintendent of Schools is to take a Years Sabbatical Leave. She has been practicing all week to step into his shoes, if needed.

Debbie is the Student Superintendent of Schools in the current Student Government program. She is shown here at the Superintendent's desk, telling George Cogan, of the Teacher's Negotiating Committee that she will give him $2 a day - and that's total pay, not a raise!

Superintendent of Schools, Walter Pierce has been granted a one year sabbatical leave to continue his study toward a Doctorate in Education. The leave will become effective August 1st and is subject to the conditions outlined in the Teacher's Contract.

The School Committee unanimously agreed that he should continue his education, feeling that this would not only enable him to advance his own knowledge and experience, but would ultimately benefit the Wilmington School System. The request was granted at the regular School Committee meeting on April 6th.

Richard Williams announces Candidacy

Richard Williams has announced his candidacy for the United States Congress, representing the Fifth District of Massachusetts.

Mr. Williams calls upon the people to recognize that in a society as complex and contradictory as ours, government at all levels has a crucial effect both for good and bad on the quality of each of our lives and we can no longer afford to entrust the tremendous powers of public office to those without the competence and experience to lead this country.

"In presenting myself as a candidate for Congress, I strongly believe I can provide the vital leadership necessary to begin moving on the challenges facing us now.

"Finally ending the war in South east Asia is our first priority, but beyond the war we must now begin to make basic decisions about the direction and character of our society.

Mr. Williams was a candidate in 1970, and although entering the race late, won 70,000 votes, against ten year incumbent Republican Congressman F. Bradford Morse. This was the largest margin won by any candidate against the incumbent in previous congressional races.

Alleged kidnapper held on Charges

A 30 year old Tewksbury man had been charged with Assault and Battery with a Dangerous Weapon and Kidnapping, in Woburn Court, by the Wilmington Police. He was arrested Monday by Inspector John Harvey of the Wilmington Police, and arraigned before Justice Francis Cullen on the same day.

According to the Wilmington police the kidnapping is supposed to have occurred on April 7th on Main Street in Wilmington. A 16 year old youth was enticed into the car, according to the story told, and taken to New Hampshire in a car, via Route 93. The youth was forced down into the bottom of the car, so that he could not see where he was going. The man who did the abducting is said to have carried a pistol, and to have threatened the youth.

The youth was afterwards returned to Wilmington, and on the return trip was able to see enough so that when the story became known he was able to describe where he had been.

He told his father of the incident later. He also told some friends. The abductor had allegedly told him that he would be on Aldrich Road on Sunday, and the youth and his friends are said to have hid in the woods near that street and watched and waited, as the story was told to the police. The abductor then appeared and drove up and down Aldrich Road four times, searching for the youth. It was during this part of the episode that the young people were able to see the number plate on the car, which was then reported to the Wilmington Police.

After arresting the suspect, Inspector Harvey took the young man to New Hampshire, for a reconstruction of the events. He was able to identify the route in New Hampshire over which he and the alleged abductor had traveled, and to pick out a cabin in which the assault was supposed to have taken place.

Inspector Harvey says that the suspect has been identified with the cabin in question.

Anyway, its a Try

The State of Vermont has banned the 'throwaway' bottle. The legislature there has voted for a law which will require a tax of four mills on all beverage bottles and cans, and the proceeds are to be used for the purpose of establishing sanitary land fill programs for the towns and cities. The program will go into effect in July, 1973.

It is to be doubted that a half cent tax per bottle will make any difference to the consumer, in today's way of thinking. A case of 24 bottles (or cans) will cost 12 cents more - and that isn't much to people who are out to enjoy themselves.

Vermont will probably have just as many empties to be found along its highways as it does today.

But, it is an encouraging try.

Street Sweeping

A lady in the Selectmen's Meeting, Monday night, asked if she might learn when the Wilmington Street Sweeper is to sweep the street where she lives. There is a lot of winter sand on the street, and on the lawns nearby.

The flip answer, of course, is that the sweeper will appear on that day when most of the ladies of the neighborhood have their curtains out on the washline, after washing.

As a practical matter of fact, Wilmington, with one street sweeper, never quite finishes sweeping up the sand (and salt) of the previous winter, before the next winter has begun, with its road sanding program. The street sweeper will be working every day, all summer long.

Before all the streets have been swept there will again be winter snows.

Ricky's Hot Dog to be Smaller?

Is Ricky's Hot Dog - the sign, not the food item, to be cut down in size?

The sign, one of the more prominent in Wilmington, was made to maximum size, when erected, several years ago. There was a Board of Appeals hearing at the time. The size of a sign in this town is regulated by the "street frontage", and in the case of Ricky's Dog House there was over 1000 feet of street frontage along Main Street.

Now another food place, Dunkin' Donuts, is being erected and about half of the street frontage is lost to the Ricky's Dog House establishment.

Danny Gillis, who, as a member of the Planning Board was one of the participants in the Board of Appeals hearing of several years ago, is now a Selectman. Monday night he asked that the Building Inspector, Roy McClanahan, be directed to review the case and report to the Board of Selectmen.

CHILDBIRTH EDUCATION COURSE

Both future parents are encouraged to take the course. Husbands are allowed to be with their wives during labor and delivery for natural childbirth.

To register for the course, call the Health Education Department - 665-1740 ext. 426.

Special Report

by Bill Kirtz

"Our leaders are no longer believed," says Jack Anderson, "even when they are telling the truth."

So the world's most widely-read newsman urges press and public to disregard official security labels, short-circuit what he terms a power lust stronger than money and — in general — "don't let the government get away with lying to you."

In past months, Mr. Anderson's column (carried daily in more than 700 newspapers) has made him a public figure in his own right.

Three months ago, he was in the spotlight with his disclosures about secret U.S. moves to help Pakistan fight India. And he's followed this up with charges that the Justice Department and the International Telephone and Telegraph Corp. have been in collusion.

Mr. Anderson, first as the late Drew Pearson's assistant and now on his own, has for decades been the scourge of government officials. He unearthed evidence that the late Connecticut Senator Thomas Dodd misused campaign contributions. He helped gather the information which led to the Kefauver Senate subcommittee crime probes.

But he departs from the standard muckraker's role as he declares that most high-ranking men in Washington want to do the right thing. Their failing? The columnist says "they don't trust the people."

"Lyndon Johnson thought he knew best about Vietnam," Mr. Anderson notes, "but he was wrong. Maybe if we had known the real facts about the Tonkin Gulf incidents seven years ago, WE would have been right. Maybe we would have stopped Lyndon Johnson. You can't rewrite history, but perhaps..."

Why do they lie?

Why do officials lie? Mr. Anderson says it's because of "arrogance and contempt for the people. We're more civilized than a dictatorship, but in Washington the stakes are high. Men will do for power what they'll never do for money. Men must control the flow of information to the people."

His remarks came during a brief New England visit between Senate investigations of his allegations about ITT and the Justice Dept.

There's no formal censorship in America, Mr. Anderson admits, but he sees security classification as virtually the same thing: "censorship at the source."

"The security system is aimed at managing the news," he says flatly, "95 to 98 per cent of all classified documents are designed to keep men in office."

The only difference he can see between Daniel Ellsberg, charged with revealing Vietnam secrets, and Lyndon Johnson is that while the former will "go to jail if the government can put him there," the latter has pocketed $1.2 million for "de-classifying" the same data in his book The Vantage Point.

Classification or no classification, Mr. Anderson seems to get the facts. He says three sources confirmed the gist of a hush-hush Presidential briefing to Congressional leaders, and that he learned ("I can't say how") of Chinese preparations to counter Soviet moves in the Indian-Pakistani conflict.

And, in his most current spectacular, he waves around what he says is the original of a memorandum which ITT lobbyist Dita Beard wrote a high company official — the memorandum which triggered his accusation that ITT offered to donate $400 thousand to this year's Republican national convention in return for a favorable settlement of an anti-trust case against the company.

'Good sources'

Citing "good sources" in ITT, he's anticipated the company's efforts to try to discredit the lobbyist.

Told that Miss Beard's doctor has testified that she had been irrational at times since 1966, he chuckles and notes that ITT had employed her all that time: "Maybe that explains their actions a little better."

Growing serious, and speaking with near-religious fervor, the columnist vows "there's no way ITT can get out of this."

"There are some things they cannot change, such as this memo," he says. "And two things did happen. The ITT case was settled, and ITT sent the Republicans $100 thousand as a down payment on the whole $400 thousand."

Mr. Anderson charges Richard Kleindienst, whose smooth path to confirmation as Attorney General John Mitchell's successor has been blocked by the columnist's accusations, with "dancing a semantic tango" around reports that he'd helped ITT settle its anti-trust differences with the government.

Mr. Anderson believes "democracy's true strength lies in the free flow of information. The Communists are bigger liars; they don't have a free press to contradict them. It would be a grave, gross error for us to stoop to that level. The people ought not to tolerate it — we should be told the truth."

And his own role in helping give the people the facts has led Boston Globe editor Thomas Winship to call Mr. Anderson today's most important "literary, political and world" figure.

"Some stuffy editors haven't considered him a bona fide newsman," says Mr. Winship. "So he hasn't won a Pulitzer Prize. Well, it's about time that 90 per cent of them started taking lessons from him."

Your mouth and nose are infectious agents.

In both mouth and nose organisms of a dangerous and infectious nature can breed, then spread.

Sneezing, coughing, and any other activity which is related can spread powerful germs for colds or other diseases.

The mouth and nose are also the exits for microorganisms which breed in the respiratory tract. It is very important, therefore, that oral hygiene be carefully practiced.

HOW MANY TELEPHONE WIRES? Will run in these conduits, being buried under the Middlesex Avenue sidewalks?

Student Officers

THERE WAS A TOTAL OF 24 STUDENT OFFICERS, elected this year, to fill posts in the Town Government, from Wilmington High School. They were sworn into office, Monday morning, by the Town Clerk, Mrs. Esther Russell.

Mrs. Russell found it to be convenient to have them sworn in twelve at a time, as shown above and below.

New Lutheran Church formally Organized

It is the belief of many that the Church is dying, yet a new one has just been born in Billerica.

The new Lutheran congregation was organized to serve the 71,000 residents of the Wilmington, Billerica and Tewksbury area. Early in 1971 Rev. Henry J. Boschen was sent here by the American Lutheran Church to establish the new parish which has been named the Community of Christ Lutheran Church. An interesting fact about this new ministry is that its membership is open to Christians who are not Lutheran. A major emphasis of the group is upon caring for people instead of preserving the institution.

It is one of four new Lutheran Churches recently started in New England. The others are in Burlington, Vt., Bennington Vt., and Kennebunk, Me.

The first service was held in the parsonage living room Easter of 1971. Now worship is conducted at Kennedy School on Kimbrough off Baldwin Rd. in Billerica, each Sunday morning at 9:30.

The organization was convened by the assistant to the Bishop, Rev. Evan Bartlett and the Mission Director Rev. Dan Hansen. At this meeting a constitution and by-laws were adopted. Named to the Church Council were James Kauffman, Robert Hayman, Loise DiMascio, Waldo Haerther, David Dumke and Roger Arnold.

The Lutheran Church is the largest Protestant Church in the world.

Church School is held at the parsonage, 155 Salem Rd. (Rte. 129) in Billerica each Thursday afternoon from 4 to 6.

The Community of Christ extends an invitation to everyone without a Church home to visit on any Sunday. For more information feel free to call the pastor at 667-2385.

SAVE UP TO $5.18* per day Take The Boston & Maine Help Reduce Pollution, Too!

That's right you can save up to $5.18* per day by taking the train from Wilmington to Boston and back... even more, if you pay tolls.

What's equally important, you don't waste time fighting traffic jams, riding around looking for a parking space plus you won't get an expensive parking ticket. All you do is just go about your business... work, shop, visit the Aquarium, see a movie or whatever. Then back on the train and you're home still fresh and relaxed.

It's convenient, too. There's a train at least every hour to and from most stations North and West of Boston.

And remember, you help fight pollution when you take the Boston & Maine. How — because a two car train can carry almost 200 passengers — 200 people in automobiles means about 125 cars polluting the air.

*Based on a 20 mile ticket, parking, and American Automobile Association "Cost of Driving" statistics.

Our Country Store
purveys all manner of gifts and tasty treats for yourself or to please a friend, including candies, baked goods, Colonial glassware, pewter and pine reproductions.

Nosey Nancy

Send your announcements to Nancy Box 208, Wilmington or call 657-7141, and after five, 658-4865. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

Hi There! And - Say now - are ya making it?

That tour in those walls in Andover certainly isn't what it's cracked up to be - My oh-my - my envy of the 9 to 5's or 8 to 4's has certainly taken a crash and this Gal can't wait for the Seasonal Sentence to run out, so She can get back on the Strip in Willie - Gads, sure do miss all of your Shenanigans. However - figure another 6 weeks should do it! Hooray - Meanwhile call me at 658-4865 after 6 pm with your notes or mail 'em to me at Box 208 - so we'll cover you. Got it?

Thanks a bunch for your assist, much credit and appreciation to those veterans MFK and BD in the TC office for the aid to this Chick in the hold over. (She didn't know this temporary job was going to turn into a "live-out jail program" when she said OK to Uncle Sam - So patience, puleeze, and She'll be back with ya shortly! - for all your doings!

Can you beat that Dapper Harold McKelvey? Cards to him this week at New England Memorial in Stoneham - Got that Gals? VFW, DAY and Am Legion? Our boy almost didn't - this time - cause he had a severe heart attack, but Myrtle - God Bless Her - had presence of mind to call our Fire Boys and they did a fantastic job on the Ambulance Run - Myrtle can't sav enuf for them (nor can this Gal - Believe Her - She's been the "victim" and knows what they can do - Those are our boys! No 2 Son spoke about joining the force this weekend and that would certainly make this Gal a proud one! - Now the tale - Seems Dapper goes to the hospital to eve those nurses and think this Gal should be jealous on account of he's pledged to Her - and - Lil Woodside of course - but judging from the growing accounts of those Charming that he wrote from the oxygen tent - would say that evening those beauties was the revving factor - He can't bear to miss the show - Wot? - and no Bikins - All fooling aside - She certainly is happy you made it Harold - and you girls take good care of our lad. Know you will! And by the way, Lil - we rated "xxxx for both of you" - Now is that two each or four each there, Harold?

That Rotary Carnival will be at the Wilmington Plaza, Rte 38 all next week - This raises money for so many of the good things that Rotary does for the Town that we all so seldom hear about - so your patronage will be appreciated - and you'll see most of the merchants there, manning booths and rides for their pet projects.

On Tuesday night April 18th, watch on TV the "Undersea World of Jacques Cousteau" sponsored in part by Willie's Lloyd Bender Ins Agency. Will certainly like to see Wilmington Mass. on TV.

All you marchers in the Memorial Day/Veterans Day parade, should send a representative to the VFW Hall on Tuesday night at 7:30 to enter your organization's name and place, as we want this to be the biggest yet!

If you like to eat - the VFW will be holding their 40th anniversary banquet on Saturday April 29th - if you want tickets, get them soon before all places are taken.

And folks - you are disappointing the police and Bedell Bros. by not getting your belongings identified. Mark all your valuable stealable things (not horses) so that thieves will leave them alone, and get a sticker to put on your front door, and they'll leave the whole place alone. - And speaking of identification - get your dog tags at the Town Hall before you're fined - and most important identification for only 25¢ at the police station - number plates for your kid's bikes. More bikes lost and found, and no identification, so you practically have to kiss their good bye, and they cost too much for that - so get the ident kit and mark them, also get the number plates - all in one stop - at the police station.

Hear the John Roberts' and son Billy of Eames Street have just returned home after visiting friends and relatives in Texas for two weeks - The Robert Lawrence's of Linda Road became grandparents twice within 12 hours this week when daughters Mrs. Ronald Blizard and Mrs. Robert Maloney presented them with grandsons - the girls are sharing a room at Winchester Hospital.

This is the time of the year when Scouters begin to think about cleaning up Camp Forty Acres - Saturday May 13th is the date - anyone interested is invited to be on hand at 8 am and you won't have to work all day - any amount of time will be most helpful.

Fred Shine (who had kind words for this Gal - thanks Fred) is attempting to drum up a little local interest in the Soap Box Derby to be held at Frank Taylor Memorial Track in Stoneham on June 18th - Prizes are fantastic and here's one for women's lib - the Derby this year is open to both boys and girls, ages 11 to 15 - interested youngsters should contact Fred as soon as possible as the last day to register is April 20th - call 658-2996 or 862-1000.

Understand Dave Blackman of Monroe Paper fame is confined to Winchester Hospital and that Doc Chernoff is recently home from there and on the mend.

Don't forget - at the Methodist Church tonight, you will have an opportunity to learn more about Friendly Adventures - a chance to take a city child into your home and heart for two weeks this summer - you could even learn something from the experience - This is New Hampshire Week at Burlington Mall - a chance to see what the old Granite State has to offer visitors - Temple Shalom Sisterhood will conduct a fashion show on Tuesday, the 18th - Post 136 American Legion will celebrate their 53rd Anniversary on Saturday, the 15th.

Did ya know that - Jackie Pearce is going to the Navy - vup - enlisted! - That Joe Medico buys 4 tickets to the Game and Donnie buys 4 in Conn. and then they swap numbers - now that's a system - Anybody win yet boys? (This Gal had one and whatta ya know - as usual - couldn't remember to look for the number - Got that licked tho, cause Johnnie Brooks announces the number on entrance to the School Committee Seance!) - That Jimmy Rooney is on the Job - That the MYF car wash and bake sale was a Success. (and thanks for those kind words and credits, kids, tho She thinks it probably was more due to the weather than to NN - but thanks anyway) - That the GS's had the same success with those White Elephants - That She'd rather that ride to the North Country!

From Cuz in Simsbury, Ct., came a joke aimed at This Chick that she wants to share with ya - "A motorist whose car was ticketed by a Meter Maid sent his dollar through the mail and tossed in a poem - "Lament to Woman's Lib" - "An overeager Meter Maid: Is always my undoing Bring back those days when Men were Men; and Maidens were for wooing." (and She'll buy that! - He, fooled ya - didn't she?)

Meanwhile - Luv Ya - A Bushel & A Bunch!

WOMEN'S CLUB TO ELECT OFFICERS

The Wilmington Women's Club will hold an election of officers at their annual meeting to be conducted in Fellowship Hall, Methodist Church on Thursday, April 20th.

Refreshments will be served at noon with the meeting scheduled for 1 pm.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Raleigh Nelson will introduce Mrs. Phyllis Church Maloney who will address the group on the subject of "Fleurance" - a wonderful way to preserve flowers.

POLICY CHANGE

In its second major enlistment policy change in two months, the United States Navy is offering a "three year" enlistment effective now.

This is the first time since the 1950's the Navy has offered a three year enlistment to all qualified young men.

Actually, the new program is divided into two segments: the "Seafarer" and the "Airman". The word "seafarer" implies a sea-going man, and the new program does just that; it offers a young man guaranteed assignment to sea duty and his choice of coasts, East or West, for his first active duty assignment. Rather than attending a Navy training school after his recruit training, he would receive on-the-job training in one of three general apprenticeships: general shipboard (Seaman), engineering (Fireman) or construction (Seabee).

The Airman Program does not guarantee sea duty, but does promise a young man his choice of East or West Coast duty, plus the opportunity to work in various phases of naval aviation, both at sea and ashore.

Any interested young men should contact Chief Dick Storms, the Navy Representative in Lowell, at the Federal Building, East Merrimack St., or call 452-0511.

RICHARD MACDONALD, SECTION CLASS OFFICER

Richard J. MacDonald of Burlington Avenue has recently been elected Section Class Officer for the second semester at Wentworth Institute in Boston.

To be elected a class section officer, a student must have a cumulative average of 2.0 or above.

K of C protests X-rated movie on TV

Supreme Knight John W. McDevitt has protested to the Columbia Broadcasting System and to the Federal Communications Commission the broadcast of an x-rated movie over the public airwaves.

In a letter addressed to Frank Stanton, CBS president, Mr. McDevitt said, "Speaking on behalf of the board of directors of one million members of the Knights of Columbus in the United States, we express our vigorous protest to the foolhardy decision of CBS to disseminate over the public airways an x-rated motion picture 'The Damned', abounding in brutal violence and explicit sex."

"As a licensed user of the public airwaves CBS has a high responsibility to serve the public interest. Dressing moral rot in visual glamor scarcely can be characterized as acting for the public weal."

"We urge that those responsible for this regrettable choice of motion picture be reprimanded and that efforts be taken to assure that such disservice to the viewing public will not be repeated."

Supreme Knight McDevitt's letter to Dean Burch, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, and to the other members of the commission stated: "We ask you to investigate the regrettable decision of CBS to feature an x-rated movie, 'The Damned', on Monday, Feb. 28th at midnight."

"We contend that dissemination over the public airwaves of such a conglomerate of brutal violence and blatant sex is a gross violation of public trust and cannot be ignored when renewal of CBS broadcasting licenses is considered."

Mr. McDevitt continued, "I appeal to all decent Americans to mail letters of protest to: Frank Stanton, President, Columbia Broadcasting System, 51 W. 52nd St., New York, N.Y. 10019. Also complain to Federal Communications Commission, Mr. Dean Burch, Chairman, 1919 M Street, N.W. Washington, D.C. 20554."

"Airing of the x-rated movie by CBS generally is regarded as a trial balloon," continued Mr. McDevitt. "It is believed that if the movie escapes hostile public reaction the network will feed more x-rated films over the public airwaves."

In recent months a new group of concerned citizens organized the Morality in Media of Massachusetts Inc., to protest the viewing of x-rated films. Mr. Gerard M. O'Meara, state deputy of the Knights of Columbus in Massachusetts, was one of the original members. Because of the complaints voiced by this organization together with those of other concerned citizens, the local affiliate of CBS in Boston cancelled the x-rated film "The Damned."

Local members of the Knights of Columbus are continuing their fight against x-rated films. This was a victory for all decent people.

Wilmington Minute Men to participate in Heritage Week

The Minute Men of Wilmington will participate in a variety of events during the up-coming Heritage Week.

Beginning on Saturday, April 15th, the Company will participate in a parade and Liberty Pole capping in Bedford at 11:30 am. Following a hearty lunch sponsored by the Bedford Company, the Wilmington men will proceed to Merriam's Corners to take part in ceremonies at that historic site at 2 pm. (This is the spot where the original Wilmington Company engaged the British in 1775 and from this spot all the way to Boston the British took a severe pounding, ending up late at night, exhausted on Bunkers Hill, Charlestown.)

On Heritage Sunday, April 16th, newly elected Captain Arthur Sugrue will lead his company to St. Thomas' Church for Mass at 9:30 am.

On Monday, April 17th the Minute Men will step off at 9 am in Arlington where they will participate in a parade sponsored by the newest Colonial Company, Monotony Village Minute Men, reorganized in 1971.

The big event will be held that afternoon at 2 in Lexington as the Company marches in that town's annual Patriots Day Parade, a three mile hike that ends up with a good serving of Patriots Punch by the Ladies of Lexington.

On Wednesday, April 19th, the Battle Day, three sturdy Minute Men will again start off on their annual re-creation of the march to Concord, following as closely as possible the route taken by members of the original company in 1775. They will leave from the Wilmington Green at approximately 3 am and will arrive in Concord around 9. Here they will be served a pancake breakfast by the Concord Minute Men.

The entire company will march in the annual Concord Patriots Day Parade and participate in ceremonies at Concord Bridge, commemorating the famous battle there.

Anyone desiring further information regarding the company and its activities may call Water Bearer, Kenneth Robbins, or Water Bearer, William Meyer.

ON THE DEANS LIST AT SALEM STATE

Mary C. Pushee of 12 Washington Avenue, Vitamarie Sinopoli of 6 Emerson Street and Kerry M. O'Rourke of Birchwood Road have been named to the Deans List in first semester courses by Salem State College.

Selling (Your House) The Fast Easy Way

Part II

How to List Your House

The first type of listing we will discuss is the open listing. An open listing is created when you offer your house for sale through one or more real estate agents or Realtors and promise to pay anyone who delivers a ready, willing, and able buyer an agreed-upon commission.

An open listing is usually not in writing. Under this type of listing, you may also sell the house yourself. Your only obligation under this type of listing is to pay a commission as agreed if the house is sold according to the terms of the listing.

The only things you have to watch out for are: (1) if any agent who has listed your house presents you with a ready, willing, and able buyer who is willing to pay the full asking price and has met any other terms of the listing, you may be liable for a commission whether or not you want to accept that particular buyer. (2) under most conditions, the first agent who brings a particular buyer across your threshold is entitled to a commission even if another agent subsequently obtains a deposit and completes the sale with this same buyer. These situations are fairly deep and murky legal waters with many ifs, ands, and buts bearing on the final outcome.

If you have problems of this type, don't call me, call your lawyer! Your best protection is always the integrity of the people you are dealing with or your lawyer.

Friendly Adventures

Again in 1972, there will be an "Adventure in Friendship" opportunity designed to give a city child from Boston a two-week vacation in the suburbs.

On Thursday April 13th at 8 pm, Reverend Hattie of the St. James Education Center will be at the Wilmington United Methodist Church, accompanied by several of the inner-city parents who have youngsters in the program. They will be available to acquaint local people with the program and answer any questions which may arise. The participating children are from varied religious and ethnic backgrounds and are between 5 and 13 years old.

There is much to be gained from this program such as knowledge of the rapid changes taking place in the metropolitan area, first hand information regarding the educational gap between city and suburban schools, and a clearer understanding of the problems faced by families with a different pattern of living and different values. The child gains new friendships and new experiences as he shares the normal activities and life of suburban families. For further information, call 658-5535.

Chess at Wilmington High School

The ancient and intriguing game of chess has attained a prominent position in the student activity program at Wilmington High School. Boasting a membership of about eighty, the chess club has become one of the largest student functions. This is complemented by a chess team, ten strong, who compete regularly in the top-flight North Shore Scholastic League.

The club had its origin over three years ago when a student asked current chess advisor, Robert Milley, if he would permit the use of his room for after school matches among a few students. The chess fever spread quickly and soon matches were held on a regular basis and records of match results were maintained. The introduction of a weekly student activity period into the school given more impetus, attracting students from all strata including athletes, work-study and special class students, and a healthy ratio of girls. An extensive equipment lending program has been established by the club and members borrow over thirty chess sets daily for use during free time and after school.

The general meeting is held on Friday in two or more rooms where advisors Robert Milley and Malcolm Jones, and teaching assistant, Gary Nelson, all of the Math Dept., oversee more than two thousand matches in a year and offer instruction or advice for beginners in the game. School-wide tournaments have been held since 1969 and a special grading system is employed to give all players a chance to win a prize within their own ability level. This year's tourney is set to get under way in mid April and nearly 100 participants are expected to compete.

The high school Chess Team plays weekly in an extensive year round schedule in such cities as Marblehead, Melrose and Revere. They have competed reasonably well with a young team which includes students Henry Landry, current school champion, Judy LeFavour, Dave Passmore and Willis Lyford, all of whom were recently initiated into the United States Chess Federation as nationally rated members. The team includes in its schedule several weekend tournaments. Most recently they finished respectably in eleventh place in the Eastern Massachusetts Scholastic Championships held at M.I.T., a tournament which in recent years has produced several national championship teams.

Future plans for chess in Wilmington may include extension of the program into the lower grades, matches with collegiate groups, and perhaps the sponsoring of a town-wide tournament. Whatever direction the activity may take, the many members of the Chess Club and team will readily confirm - "Chess is in at Wilmington High School".

Student Selectmen at Work

CHAIRMAN TOM MCGINLEY PRESIDING: At the Student Board of Selectmen meeting, Monday night. With him are two other Selectmen, Miss Dawn Lyman and James Duffy.

The discussion was quite candid, but at times one couldn't tell where it was going, when the Student Board of Selectmen took over in the Town Hall, Monday night. The Chairman was Tom McGinley, of Hargrave Avenue. Tom, who spoke about the litter about town, found himself part of a volunteer crew that will help the Chamber of Commerce in the annual Clean Up.

He of course sat at the head of the table. At the left was Miss Dawn Lyman of Meadow Lane, and at right James Duffy.

The Student Selectmen agreed that there is too much restriction at times in places of student entertainment, but at the same time felt that some chaperonage was necessary. They felt that more opportunity should be given to the younger generation to solve its own problems, in deportment.

Nancy Earsy, candidate for State Democratic Comm.

In her ten years as a member of the League of Women Voters, Mrs. Earsy served as director and President of the Lexington League. She also served as secretary of the state League Board for two years, and edited the 1970 edition of "Massachusetts State Government", published by Harvard University Press. She is married to Robert Earsy, currently a city planning student at M.I.T. and Harvard. They have two children, Paul and David, who attend the Lexington public schools.

Commenting on her background, and her goals as a State Committee candidate, Mrs. Earsy said, "Through the League of Women Voters I gained considerable factual knowledge about the structures and procedures of government. I have a strong commitment to opening up the democratic process to allow full participation by all the voters in our Democratic Party decisions. I will work to develop the Democratic State Committee as a forum for expressing the views of all voters in the party."

Nancy F. Earsy of 32 Parker Street, Lexington, has announced her candidacy for a four year term as Democratic State Committeewoman. She is running for the state committee post in the 7th Middlesex District, which includes Lexington, Bedford, Carlisle, Chelmsford, and much of Woburn. The 80 member State Committee will be elected on April 25th on the presidential primary ballot, when a state committee woman and a state committee man will be chosen from each of the state senatorial districts.

In making her announcement, Mrs. Earsy stressed her goal of revitalizing the State Democratic Committee as an active open forum for all points of view.

Mrs. Earsy said, "The State Committee election is a real sleeper." The Massachusetts Democratic Party is vitally affected by the viewpoint of the State Committee; yet State Committee candidates are often invisible, and the number of blank votes often exceeds the number of votes received by the winner. I hope to run a visible grassroots campaign and talk with people in all the towns in the district about their goals and priorities for the Democratic party."

In her job at the State House as a legislative aide to Representative David Liederman, Mrs. Earsy has worked on legislation dealing with services for the elderly, housing programs, property tax relief, and improved low-cost higher education for all eligible Massachusetts students. As an active member of C.P.P., Citizens for Middlesex County, Common Cause, and the League of Women Voters, Mrs. Earsy advocates open, accountable government where policy decisions and financial matters are a matter of public record.

Host English 4-H Student

The Franklin Estabrook's of Roosevelt Road will act as a host family for Middlesex County's 4-H Club English Exchange.

A total of 68 English students between the ages of 13 and 17 years with 5 adult chaperones will arrive in Middlesex County of April 17th for a cultural exchange and will return to England on April 21st. The participants are all enrolled at the Cray Valley Technical High School, Sidcup, Kent, England.

This Exchange will enable Middlesex 4-H members and other host families to share an exchange of ideas, customs and everyday living experiences with their English guests.

Highlight of the program will be the Patriot's Day activities in Concord on April 19th.

The carrot was first introduced to England in the sixteenth century, from Holland.
